OUR STORY

Sun Island Tours was founded in 1989 by Lakis and Celia Polyviou, whose passion for travel and extensive industry experience laid the foundation for what has become one of Australia's leading specialists in Mediterranean and Middle Eastern travel.

Before establishing Sun Island Tours, Lakis worked with Ansett and Greek travel agencies before opening Kyrenia Travel in 1976, specialising in travel to Greece and Cyprus. Together with Celia's experience in the travel industry, they built a business renowned for its personalised service, expert knowledge, and genuine care for every traveller.

Recognising the need for a specialist wholesaler offering quality tours, cruises and tailor-made holidays, Lakis and Celia established Sun Island Tours to provide travellers with expertly curated experiences throughout the Mediterranean and beyond.

Today, more than 35 years later, Sun Island Tours offers an extensive range of holidays across the Mediterranean and Middle East. The family legacy continues with Lakis and Celia's sons, Paul and John Polyviou, who now serve as Joint CEOs, leading the company into its next chapter.
